

SCHUDE TRADE LAW

US GOVERNMENT PROCUREMENT

Schude Trade Law assists clients in qualifying for U.S. government procurement contracts, including determining product eligibility according to the Buy American Act, Trade Agreements Act, and Buy America regulations.

Schude Trade Law also determines the applicability of specific agency rules as part of implementing government procurement compliance policies, procedures, and training. Requests Internal Advice and Binding Determinations from CBP to ascertain the country of origin for products to qualify for U.S. government procurement. Assists in establishing merchandise on the GSA Schedule.
